

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FREE CUBA FILM SERIES

"America unites for Cuba" Three diverse films made in Cuba tour the nation.

BEVERLY HILLS, CA - Saturday, September 6th, 2008 - One night, three films, for Cuba. The premiere screening of award winning films united to bring the real Cuba to America.

The Free Cuba Film Series include three diverse films that transport audiences into the heart, soul and underbelly of Cuba, who Cubans are, and the eternal relationship to America that connects us all.

The first film, Cuba's Love and Suicide, is a true love story set in Havana; the second film, Havana KidZ, is the kid's version of Buena Vista Social Club; the third film, Man of Two Havana's, delivers true accounts of the direct family relationship between U.S. politicians, Cuban terrorist and Fidel Castro.

The evening is an entertaining, uplifting and educationally revealing experience. The films bring audiences into the real Cuba with their own eyes.

THE FILMS.

- Cuba's Love and Suicide, the movie: The first and only feature film in 50 years to be shot in Havana, Cuba by American filmmakers. A love story of a man who goes to Cuba and discovers the one thing between love and suicide.
- Havana KidZ, a music documentary: Imagine the Buena Vista Social Club as kids. See the new generation of young Cuban musicians as they defy all obstacles to bring a new era of music to the world.
- The Man of Two Havana's, a documentary film: Based on the life of journalist Max Lesnik. We journey into a true story of terrorism, deception, bombing and political warfare that still controls and destroys a country called Cuba. See how the U.S. protects known Cuban terrorist and Cuba's worst enemies U.S. Cuban-American politicians in Washington.
